NEW RELEASE Murtagh by Christopher Paolini

Master storyteller and internationally bestselling author Christopher Paolini returns to the World of Eragon in this stunning epic fantasy set a year after the events of the Inheritance Cycle. Join Dragon Rider—and fan favorite—Murtagh and his dragon as they confront a perilous new enemy!

The world is no longer safe for the Dragon Rider Murtagh and his dragon, Thorn. An evil king has been toppled, and they are left to face the consequences of the reluctant role they played in his reign of terror. Now they are hated and alone, exiled to the outskirts of society.

Throughout the land, hushed voices whisper of brittle ground and a faint scent of brimstone in the air—and Murtagh senses that something wicked lurks in the shadows of Alagaësia. So begins an epic journey into lands both familiar and untraveled, where Murtagh and Thorn must use every weapon in their arsenal, from brains to brawn, to find and outwit a mysterious witch. A witch who is much more than she seems.

In this gripping novel starring one of the most popular characters from Christopher Paolini's blockbuster Inheritance Cycle, a Dragon Rider must discover what he stands for in a world that has abandoned him. Murtagh is the perfect book to enter the World of Eragon for the first time . . . or to joyfully return.

Tibetan Children's Education Foundation

Elder Tsewang Dorjee

Founded in 1995 by a group of Montanans who came into contact with Tibetan refugees and were touched by their plight, the Tibetan Children's Education Foundation (TCEF) is dedicated to the preservation of Tibetan culture by educating and assisting Tibetans, raising awareness of Tibetan culture, and by empowering Tibetans to manifest these goals.

Barjon's Books is a long time supporter in the TCEF Elder sponsorship program, which connects interested sponsors with elderly Tibetan in exile that need help to survive. As children are our future hope – grandparents are our connection to the past.

Tibetan families are close knit and children and grandchildren do take care of their parents and grandparents. But, in cases where elderly Tibetan do not have family, they can be very vulnerable. Tibetans in exile do not have social security or a comparable old age pension scheme. The sponsorship funds help to purchase food, clothing, medicine and other essentials. It may help an elderly to go on a long wished for pilgrimage.

Love as Protection

with Lisa Knowlton

Saturday, Nov. 4, 12:00 - 3:00 pm

When learning protective mechanisms, we oftentimes use barriers and extra hardening tactics to keep unwanted forces out of our field. This can help if we think our existence was meant for a warriorship against love, but if this hardening moves us to feel afraid above all else, our hearts will never know true love and warriorship.

During this class we will collectively learn to embrace our own truth of love already living within our heart while showing each other there are characteristics of love in all of us. The group will be led through energy harmonizing and cleansing practices while being instructed how to open and expand our energy. We will practice learning to trust the vibration of love that expounds around us while understanding the profound and universal abundance of love existing in our world. This type of protection holds a grandiosity over shrinking and blocking our view of the world as a safe place. Build strength in comfort with yourself and comfort with knowing love can harmonize with another's strength to grow and become comfortable no matter who they are.

Lisa has been practicing energy manipulation as a yoga instructor for 27 years and provides one-on-one illuminating heart readings on Fridays at Barjon's.

Space is limited to 12 attendees. RSVP online at www.barjonsbooks.com

Plant Allies for Shadow Work with Jim Nymeyer

Saturday, Nov. 18, 1:00 - 3:00 pm

Working with our inner shadows in healthy and beneficial ways supports spiritual evolution and overall health. As we move into the darker half of the year--with longer nights and colder weather--we are provided a beautiful opportunity to spend more time in introspection. Shadow work involves approaching our inner tender spots, including hurt, anger, and grief, with guidance and in a safe space.

Whether working with a shadow work journal, a mental health professional, or a spiritual guide, plants and the natural world can provide meaningful support. In this class, we will journey through folklore, ancient symbolism, and personal accounts of magical allyship with the plant world. We will highlight the mystical aspects of certain plants that beneficially contribute to shadow work and the road to personal betterment.

Trigger warning: In this class, we will touch on some topics which certain people may find triggering. These topics include grief, anger, thoughts of harm/self-harm, and mental illness.

Jim Nymeyer is an herbalist, wellness educator, and meditation teacher that has over two decades of experience leading workshops on various physical, energetic, and spiritual healing systems. He studied traditional Chinese herbal sciences at the East West School of Herbology and holds an advanced certification in Himalayan Sound and Vibrational Healing Therapy.
