~ FEATURED EVENTS ~

Psychic Fair & Holiday Stroll Artwalk

Featuring artist Melissa Smith
5:00 pm - 9:00 pm

This event features the gifts of a variety of psychic healers and readers, booths selling handcrafted gifts. Come browse and shop. There is no admission fee.

Then at 5pm, Barjon's is pleased to host artist Melissa Smith for December's Downtown Holiday Stroll Artwalk reception.

Painting for over 30 years, Melissa Smith often challenges boundaries in her art, gravitating to work on large canvas or edge to edge wall murals, collecting found materials to experiment with mediums and textures to create visual stories with depth and layers.

In this collection, Melissa explores tarot themes, in particular the growth and potential for what comes after disaster.

Does the observer's eye fall on the shadows, or what stretches in the rays of light that shine through?

Herbs for the Winter Solstice: Sacred Plants from European Folk Tradition

with Wren Nymeyer

Saturday, Dec. 2, 1:00 - 3:00 pm

$45

The winter solstice is a time to celebrate the re-emergence of light from darkness. It bespeaks the gestation of seeds beneath the earth's frozen surface, which patiently prepares for the coming of the warmth.

In this class, herbalist Wren Nymeyer will introduce herbs deeply connected with the winter solstice in ancient European folk traditions. Come and learn about the long-held ceremonial uses of these sacred plants as we explore their spiritual and healing properties, which reach back thousands of years.

Wren Nymeyer is a professional herbalist, wellness educator, and meditation teacher that has over two decades of experience leading workshops on various physical, energetic, and spiritual healing systems.

Space is limited to 12 attendees. RSVP online at www.barjonsbooks.com

Wicca: A Guide for the Solitary Practitioner

By Scott Cunningham

This book is recommended by Todd Kintz, especially for those who will be joining his Wicca 101 ten-week course starting in January, 2024. You can find this book available now in-store.

Cunningham's classic introduction to Wicca is about how to live life magically, spiritually, and wholly attuned with nature. It is a book of sense and common sense, not only about magick, but about religion and one of the most critical issues of today: how to achieve the much needed and wholesome relationship with our Earth.

Cunningham presents Wicca as it is today: a gentle, Earth-oriented religion dedicated to the Goddess and God. "Wicca" also includes Scott Cunningham's own Book of Shadows and updated appendices of periodicals and occult suppliers. Witchcraft Folklore & Mythology Inspiration & Personal Growth.

Winter Solstice in Montana

One of the ways the Blackfeet Nation mark the time of the winter solstice and the "return" of the sun or "Naatosi" on its annual journey. The day marked the beginning of celebration, dancing, singing, drumming and games, a time of rejuvenation, giving thanks and prayers for good hunting and bountiful coming seasons.

January Events

This Wheel of Rocks
with author Sister Marya Grathwohl
Saturday, January 6

Meet author Sister Marya Grathwohl as we introduce her book, This Wheel of Rocks, a memoir of her spiritual journey as a Catholic nun, that explores the deep connections between faith and the natural world.

Wicca 101, a 10-week workshop
Begins Sunday, January 14

What do Wiccans/Witches REALLY do and believe? What are the deeper meanings of the holidays that we all commonly celebrate? What's the true meaning of the pentacle and other Pagan symbols? Answers to these questions and more are in this 10-week class, starting January 16 at noon. Students may expect to learn about beliefs of Wicca and other Pagan traditions, the eight Sabbats (major holidays), Deities, and how they connect with the seasons.

Space is limited to 12 attendees. RSVP online at www.barjonsbooks.com

Meet Father Christmas

Sunday, Dec 3, 1:00 - 4:00 pm

Sunday, Dec 17, 1:00 - 4:00 pm

Once again in the merry Winter Solstice season, Olde Father Christmas will be visiting Barjon's Books in Billings and allowing his jolly self to be photographed with you, your family and friends!

Father Christmas encourages a donation of $5 - $10 for each photo, which will go to support the work of local non-profit educational organization MusEco Media and Education Project (www.MusEco.org).

Many Christmas traditions originated in Europe then were woven together to bring us our contemporary Christmas: the Christmas tree, gift exchanges, holly & ivy, lights, wreaths, and Olde Father Christmas himself. Each celebrates the fact that in the bitter cold of winter, as the days are shortest and the nights their longest, the Sun is "reborn" on the Winter Solstice to welcome a New Year! (The Winter Solstice is the shortest day and longest night of the year.)

Come join us and immerse yourself in a bit of the history that brought us to the fun and frolic of the Christmas of today! Your Father Christmas photos can be used for holiday cards, emails and/or social media.
