

Empathic Shielding:

How to Work with Your Gift in a Chaotic World

with Danielle Egnew

Saturday, Oct 16,

12:00 pm - 4:30 pm

The Empathic Psychic gift is the ability to “feel” energies in a space, situation, and even in people, to then extract Psychic information from that energy. As an empath, we feel everything, both positive and negative. Often times, we are unaware of how to work with this strong Psychic gift, to transform this overwhelming flood of emotional information into something useful, even purposefully powerful, in the world.

Many empaths have found these times of great chaos to be emotionally and psychologically challenging. Join Angel Translator, Psychic/Medium and Author Danielle Egnew where we work through group exercises to learn: how to transform chaotic energy into useful and purposeful fuel; how to identify where the body is “reading” energetic impulses; how to “isolate” those energetic impulses within the body; how to transform the chaotic energy within into energy that is light and useful; how to “dismiss” energy out of the body which causes us stress; how to “deflect” negative or chaotic energy that is directed at us; how to “shift” the energy in a room, where chaotic energy may be present; and more.

In addition, for those that wish to bring their own raw black tourmaline (raw black tourmaline is also available for purchase at Barjon's Books), Danielle will lead a stone-wrapping segment, as we prepare a helpful talisman for our energetic journey forward. (Polished stones are not recommended for the stone wrapping. Stone wrapping supplies will be furnished. Stones are a personal choice, and will not be furnished.)

TO REGISTER, purchase your ticket online at <https://DanielleEgnew-Advisor.com/events>, or in person at Barjon's Books. Due to very limited seating and materials prep, workshop purchases are non-refundable. If a cancellation must occur due to Covid, a credit will be issued for future Danielle Egnew workshops at Barjon's.

Space is limited to 13 attendees. Masks are not required, yet recommended, especially for those who are unvaccinated.

Oneness Billings Community has met at Barjon's Friday at noon since 2011. When we get together and share Oneness teachings and meditation we are joining the Oneness Field, Ekam, located in South India.

Participate in the transformation of world consciousness. By meditating in Ekam collectively, we will change the consciousness of all of humankind to an expanded state that is conducive to peace, love, and freedom. This impacts all of life, bringing benefits to humankind and our beautiful Mother Earth. The structure of the Oneness Field in itself is a phenomenon for how it can affect and uplift our consciousness into transcendental realms. Meditating and being part of these processes means we are being part of a powerful field that is guiding us into Oneness-consciousness. Connecting with Ancestors

Ancestral communications is an ancient and daily practice found in many cultures around the world, including Mayan, Celtic, Aborigine, Indigenous American, Ancient Greece, Ancient Eurasia, African Tribal, Tibetan, and the Vedic/Yogic traditions. Some major religions, such as the Catholic faith, honor the deceased on All Saints Day and All Souls Day with prayers, candles, incense, chanting, ceremony, and offerings. In Mexico, they celebrate the Day of the Dead (Dia De Los Muertos). And in the Celtic tradition, Samhain, which observes the transition time between the two worlds.

The ancestors are ones who intimately know what it is like to take the human incarnation and share your spiritual and/or physical DNA. They can have great empathy, compassion, and sensitivity for what it is like to be in a personal earth journey. They can provide helpful teachings, guidance, protection, healing, and forgiveness from the spirit dimension.

Opening up your heart and learning how to communicate with your ancestors can provide deep, transformational healing on all levels.

Herbs for Ancestor Work

Mugwort is an essential protection herb, but also enhances psychic visions, dreams, and astral travel. This is especially helpful as ancestors often come to us in our dreams and through psychic visions.

Pine represents the evergreen trees of prehistoric past, representing immortality and renewal.

Tobacco is used in Voodoo and Hoodoo traditions as offerings to the spirits. To many Native Americans, tobacco was smoked as an initiation to many things including friendships, alliances, and at the beginning of a long journey.

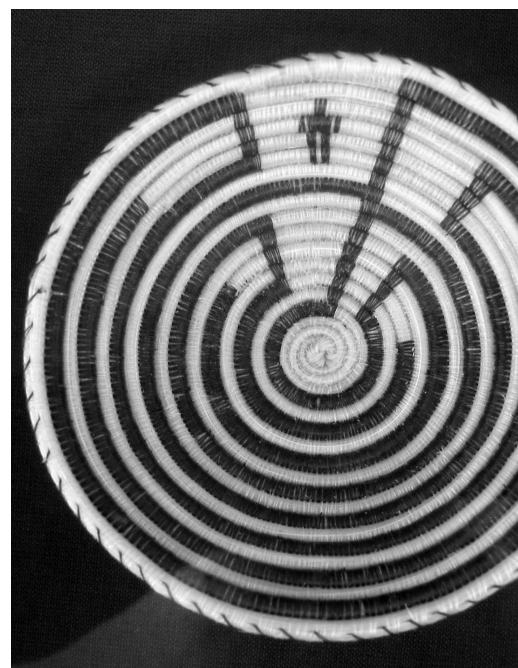

Stones for Ancestor Work

Obsidian, for grounding and protection: because of its use in divination to “see” the other side, makes it a powerful stone to use in contacting one’s ancestors.

Selenite opens the crown chakra, a direct connection to the Divine. Its white light brings clarity and breaks through debris that clouds our auras blocking us from connecting with our ancestors.

Lapis lazuli was used by the Ancient Egyptians to honor royalty in the afterlife. Assists with opening the third-eye making it a potent tool to use in ancestor work.

You can find connection to your ancestors in water. The waters and rain that touch your body today are the same waters that hydrated and cleansed the bodies of your ancestors.

Ancestor Spirit Oracle Cards

Answer the call of the ancestors to connect to their wisdom, discover their truths, and accept their support. The knowledge of those who came before us can never be lost. It is alive within our hearts, our souls, and our DNA. Tap into love and learning from spirits past with the guidance of award-winning psychic medium, Jade-Skye. Stand with wisdom holders, be open to ageless insight, and solidify your dreams in a future of joy, fulfilment, and clarity.

This 43-card set features beautiful images, carefully created by Belinda Morris, to reinforce the messages and help you stretch your energy into other times and spaces for direction, decision-making, purpose, and reassurance that the ancestors walk with you.

Channelling and connecting with ancestor spirits from many cultures is an important part of Jade-Sky's work as a psychic medium. She interprets messages, signs, and symbols from many traditions and is honored to share her extensive knowledge with you here in this oracle. Boxed kit includes a 43-card deck and 104-page guidebook

Ancient Spirit Rising

by Pegi Eyers

Come back to your roots! Drawing on cultural studies and contemporary social justice, Ancient Spirit Rising examines the loss of our vital ethnocultural connection to tribe and place, and why there is a trend to borrow identities from other cultures.

From the wealth of resources available today, an authentic self-identity can be reconstructed from old/new earth-centered societies, using the timeless values of indigenous knowledge (IK) as our model. A weaving of analysis, evocation and promptings of the heart, Ancient Spirit Rising offers strategies for intercultural competency, healing our relationships with Turtle Island First Nations, decolonization, rewilding, restoring an ecocentric worldview, returning to the Old Ways, creating a sustainable future and reclaiming peaceful co-existence in Earth Community. With extensive notes and exhaustive references, Ancient Spirit Rising is an essential compendium for change!

Ancestral healing is, in essence, being able to look to ancestors in the past and present, living ancestors, as well – and connect with them

When the Light of the World Was Subdued, Our Songs Came Through

A Norton Anthology of Native Nations Poetry, edited By Joy Harjo

United States Poet Laureate Joy Harjo gathers the work of more than 160 poets, representing nearly 100 indigenous nations, into the first historically comprehensive Native poetry anthology.

This landmark anthology celebrates the indigenous peoples of North America, the first poets of this country, whose literary traditions stretch back centuries. Opening with a blessing from Pulitzer Prize-winner N. Scott Momaday, the book contains powerful introductions from contributing editors who represent the five geographically organized sections.

Each section begins with a poem from traditional oral literatures and closes with emerging poets, ranging from Eleazar, a seventeenth-century Native student at Harvard, to Jake Skeets, a young Diné poet born in 1991, and including renowned writers such as Luci Tapahonso, Natalie Diaz, Layli Long Soldier, and Ray Young Bear. When the Light of the World Was Subdued, Our Songs Came Through offers the extraordinary sweep of Native literature, without which no study of American poetry is complete.
