December Artwalk with Artist Kelley Partridge

December 2, 5:00 pm - 9:00 pm

Join us in celebrating Kelley Partridge at this free ArtWalk reception in December.

"I feel so blessed to have found a love of creating. It is a pleasure and true honor to create for others as is an important part in my continued healing and growth as well. I think the fact you're here says you may find something you need. Art, to me, is more than just something to look at. I believe there is connection and energy in creation. Color combined with intention is powerful! I would love to be a part of your story and provide you with a visual of something heartfelt. I am constantly learning and expanding the ways I create. I think that's something being self taught has provided me. You don't know you can do until you try and it's never too late!"

AND A WONDERFUL NEW YEAR

Father Christmas

Sunday, December 4 & 18
1:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Once again in the merry Winter Solstice season, Olde Father Christmas will be visiting Barjon's Books in Billings and allowing his jolly self to be photographed with you, your family and friends! Father Christmas encourages a donation of $5 - $10 for each photo, which will go to support the work of local non-profit educational organization MusEco Media and Education Project (www.MusEco.org).

Many Christmas traditions originated in Europe then were woven together to bring us our contemporary Christmas: the Christmas tree, gift exchanges, holly & ivy, lights, wreaths, and Olde Father Christmas himself. Each celebrates the fact that in the bitter cold of winter, as the days are shortest and the nights their longest, the Sun is "reborn" on the Winter Solstice to welcome a New Year! (The Winter Solstice is the shortest day and longest night of the year.)

Come join us and immerse yourself in a bit of the history that brought us to the fun and frolic of the Christmas of today! Your Father Christmas photos can be used for holiday cards, emails and/or social media.

Pumpkin Spice Magic

"Pumpkin Spices" all have an element of fire and each adds energy to help us through the dark days of winter. Magically speaking, these spices increase physical and mental activity, bolster our courage, banish negativity and support defensive magic.

Cinnamon, in addition to the fire element and a whole host of health benefits, draws in abundance and adds a kick of energy that amplifies all other energies in the mix.

Ginger stimulates prosperity, increases personal energy, vigor and induces passion.

Nutmeg offers physical and spiritual protection, aids in meditation and as a plant of Jupiter, attracts money and luck.

Allspice adds determination and energy to intentions and endeavors. Also good for healing.

Cloves stimulates the mind while relaxing the body. It is also used to boost self-confidence.
