Your life is a rich tapestry woven from the threads of relationships that your soul has been drawn to experience in order to learn many valuable lessons. Relationships are how you first create a sense of your own identity and how you heal wounded parts of yourself. Each relationship you encounter is a mirror of your strengths, your fears, and your weaknesses. This workbook is designed to take you on a journey of getting to know yourself better through the relationships that you have attracted. The work you do here will further your understanding of the subconscious limiting beliefs you carry about relationships. Through the belief work tools in this book, you can create more connection, more harmony, and weave more unconditional love into the tapestry of all the relationships that are in your life.

February Artwalk

Friday, February 3 5:00 pm - 9:00 pm

Free Reception

Join us in celebrating Mana Lesman at this free ArtWalk reception in February.

"I paint what i feel strongly about. That includes many things: the earth, its life forms, man and woman, history, the future, the philosophies that govern our perception of all of these. I seek to make visible my feelings because i think it vital to awaken consciousness, my own and my audience. The visual arts are a direct conduit into our deepest senses of feeling and awareness. Long before writing these visuals awakened in us a sense of others and the worlds around us, past, present and future. Even now, these awarenesses determine our course of action and hopefully aid us in making rational and relevant moves in our lives. My art is dedicated to that awakening."

Lunar New Year

Lunar New Year, Chinese Chunjie, Vietnamese Tet, Korean Solnal, Tibetan Losar, also called Spring Festival, festival typically celebrated in China and other Asian countries that begins with the first new moon of the lunar calendar and ends on the first full moon of the lunar calendar, 15 days later.

According to Chinese Astrology, the Rabbit symbolizes patience and luck. This suggests that the Year of the Rabbit 2023 will bring qualities that may have been lacking in the previous year, such as peace and success.

During the Year of the Rabbit, it is likely that people who are prone to impulsiveness or who have a tendency to be unrealistic will be influenced to be more level-headed and practical. It is, therefore, advisable to think carefully before acting to have the best chance of achieving your goals and realizing your plans.

The Year of the Rabbit is expected to be a positive and fortunate time for most zodiac signs. We can expect success in love and advancement in our careers, and there should not be any major health concerns.

Being Love

by Lisa Knowlton, Illuminating Heart Readings on Tuesday & Thursdays

Like clockwork in perfect time, our world is hungry for love in a way it hasn't been for centuries. Human consciousness is evolving, and we must be willing to look at ourselves as a whole, from the perspective of the individual and as a collective.

For far too long we've poured our interest of love into an external force, whether it be another person/animal, a God/Goddess, or a desire for the intake of something we can't always get our hands on.

The work of true love is in our heart mind connection. All too often we hear things like, "love your body with the right foods, a healing touch, or a warm bed for those who are blessed," but humanity hasn't believed in how the exquisite and profound action of true love can literally destruct and bring old patterns to a complete and utter halt, especially when the delicacy of worthiness has been tampered with by agoraphobia of the heart.

To believe in more love we must insist on growing from old views and patterns. The grooves of old habits and beliefs determine our warfare on this new way of life, and it is within our hearts truest form that we can redefine our preferences for living in a more loving way.

When a heart has been viciously harmed or corrupted, its true form becomes squandered and malfunctions to the distortion of a dying frequency. A frequency so minimized it becomes frugal in its effervescence and ability to magnify its true nature. When the mind tries to learn about what love is, it tends to grow more from mimicking the heart's frequency than it does from any kind of conceptual advancement. Thinking about the words and outward behaviors we've associated with love does no justice to the true impact of mending the frequency of the heart.

We must devolve into our own heart's fruition to elevate its frequency. When we begin with this, a mending of cellular disfiguration occurs and the volume of our own heart's fancies begins to crowd out old views, old ways of being, and the destruction of harmful retrogressions becomes a courageous feat. Collaborating with a bravery hiding in a part of our human system morphs our state of mind and projects it into a new timeframe where we can associate our loving features with that of the great fallout, occurring right now. All that is not of love's highest form is illuminated and expands across a body of consciousness creating a worry-free escape into a more loving world.

Tibetan Children's Education Foundation

Founded in 1995 by a group of Montanans who came into contact with Tibetan refugees and were touched by their plight, this year marks TCEF's 25th Anniversary. Over these years, the foundation has offered around $2 million in program spendings.

The Tibetan Children's Education Foundation (TCEF) is dedicated to the preservation of Tibetan culture by educating and assisting Tibetans, raising awareness of Tibetan culture, and by empowering Tibetans to manifest these goals. To fulfill this mission TCEF undertake tours with Tibetan cultural ambassadors to educate and raise awareness of Tibetan art and culture in this country.

The primary focus is to help with the education of Tibetan refugee children through various educational projects and a very successful sponsorship program. Education projects include building education infrastructure, training teachers and providing education technologies in Tibetan classrooms. Finally, TCEF works to serve the Tibetan people through direct health and humanitarian services and with an Elders' sponsorship program and by humanitarian and health services.

FAQ: What are the types of psychic readings?

Psychic readings can provide insight to the past, present and future, but predictions are not set in stone. Individuals remain masters of their destiny. You can use these discussions to make informed choices that can result in positive outcomes.

Intuitive Readings

Intuitive readers are sensitive to the energy of people and objects around them. These people can sense what is going on in your life. These readings give you perspective on what and why something is happening in your life and can empower you to make more informed decisions for yourself.

Tarot/oracle cards, runes, charms, etc

These readings are similar to intuitive readings using tools that are designed and crafted to help tune in to the energy of those in the reader's space to highlight which information in the aether is most relevant to the recipient.

Medium Readings

A medium is an intuitive reader that specializes in channeling spirits in other dimensions, including passed loved ones, ancestors, angels and other spiritual beings.
