with Annelle Moore
Sat., July 15, 10:00 am - 12:00 pm
$88

This class is tailored for you to learn how to access YOUR OWN Akashic records.

In the records, every version of you - past, present, or future is stored. This means all of your healing, your lives, your karma, your dharma, your gifts, your success, your strengths all lie here in this realm waiting for you to open them up.

Through class we will dive into what the records are, use ancient and modern techniques to open them up (the sacred hybrid), receive an attunement to raise your frequency making it easier to connect to your records, move through an in-depth past life Regression through the records, and learn how to close the records and receive what you learned.

This is a tool you can take with you into every aspect of your life - your business, your family/home life, your relationship, your successes and failures, its a key to unlock any door you ever wish to open in this life, and the next or the previous.

Bring a journal to take notes! Otherwise we will have pen and paper. See you in the Akasha,

To learn more and register, RSVP online at www.barjonsbooks.com, or in person at Barjon's Books. Space is limited to 12 attendees.

Discoveries are often made by not following instructions; by going off the main road; by trying the untried.

~ August Artwalk ~

Featuring Artists Danielle Egnew and Rebecca Douglas
Friday, August 4, 5:00 pm - 9:00 pm
Free Reception

Join Barjon’s as we host artists Danielle Egnew and Rebecca Douglas for August’s Downtown Artwalk reception.

A multi-award-winning artist across artistic genres, Danielle Egnew’s fine oil work has sold to collectors all across the globe. Her new oil series, Bigger Sky, brings focus to the universal and spiritual energy in the clouds above us. As clouds are birthed with each weather pattern, they teach us to draw strength from even the most difficult of situations; the same chaos which churns together a monstrous storm also creates the most power.

Rebecca Douglas is a 30 year veteran of the arts with a heavy focus on Fine Art Photography. With an award-winning eye that seeks light, she has applied her artistic skills to multiple genres, the latest being fine oil paints. Rebecca’s fascination with the Aspen stems from the concept that all life is interconnected. The Aspens are a reminder to all of us that there is strength, growth, safety and beauty when we cultivate our own groves of community.

The Temperance Card

Temperance is the tarot card for July and it brings a request for balance way all options before making any decisions choose goals carefully and find the reason and the motivation for attaining them.

On the Temperance card, there is an angel with wings, whose gender is not immediately obvious, which suggests that there is a balance between the sexes.

One foot of the angel is in water, to represent the subconscious, while the other foot is on dry land, a representation of the material world. On their robe, there is a square, which has a triangle inscribed inside, another echo of the tangible earth in union with the holy trinity. They hold two cups in a manner where they can mix the waters, which represent the super and subconscious minds. The water flows between the cups, suggesting union and infinity.

Everything about this card represents balance, the perfect harmony that comes from the union of dualities. Temperance’s advice is to test any new waters, before jumping into the deep end.

This month, take time to evaluate and re-examine the priorities you have chosen. This will help create a balance between your outer and inner self. At the end of it all, you will find greater purpose and meaning in your actions, for her message is that we cannot live fully in either.

Grandmother Aggie’s Blessing

Celebrated with a special figurine from Bell Pine Art Farm

Dearly Beloved, Creator of All, Creator of the Great Mystery, Breathe your healing breath onto these carriers of good medicine so they touch those who hold them and manifest peace in their hearts for themselves and the world. Beloved, with your help we pray for Our Earth Mother’s blood. The precious water all over the world needs us to thank it for all life. We know water can hear, so every human being can give prayers of thanks and talk to the water. Grandfather, include this with the Riverkeeper totems so they embody this prayer. It is done.” Aho!

~Grandmother Agnes Baker-Pilgrim, (September 11, 1924 – November 27, 2019)

Grandma Aggie’s bestowed blessings and prayers on the Bell Pine Art Farm studio and in particular gave the above blessing for their Riverkeeper sculpture to carry. Grandmother Agnes Baker Pilgrim is part of the International Council of 13 Indigenous Grandmothers. Partial proceeds from the sale of this sculpture are donated on behalf of Grandmother Aggie’s work and water.

Islamic New Year

Wednesday, July 19

In 2023, Muslim Americans will observe the Islamic New Year on Wednesday, July 19th which will mark the year 1445 in the Islamic calendar. The Islamic calendar dates back to the migration of the Prophet Muhammad and his followers from Mecca to Medina in the year 622 C.E. (Common Era), which is known as the Hijra.

The Hijra marks a turning point in the history of Islam; the importance of this event is reflected in the fact that it marks the beginning of the Islamic calendar, rather than the birth of the Prophet Muhammad or the first Qur’anic revelation in 610 C.E.

In 622 C.E., Muhammad and about two hundred followers migrated to nearby Yathrib, which later became known as Medinat an-Nabi, the “City of the Prophet,” or simply Medina. It was in Medina that the first Islamic community was established. Muhammad laid out the rights and duties of all citizens of Medina in a charter, which became known as the “Constitution of Medina.” This charter addressed Muslims as well as people of other faiths, and delineated the relationship between Muslims and other communities, while guaranteeing them their rights.

The Islamic calendar therefore begins in the year 622 C.E., and is known as the Hijri calendar. It is a lunar rather than a solar calendar, and therefore depends on the sighting of the new moon or crescent to determine the start of each month.
