Artwalk Holiday Stroll

featuring Charli Sleeper
Friday, Dec. 6 | 5:00 - 9:00 pm

Join Barjon's as we host artists Charlene "Charli" Sleeper for December's Downtown Artwalk Holiday Stroll.

Charli is a Crow, Chippewa-Cree, Southern Cheyenne & Arapahoe self taught Two Spirit artist from Montana. Their Indigenous name is "Axpe Hisshe Bia" which means "Red Eagle Fan Woman". It was given to them by their mother before their fourth Sundance ceremony.

Charli has long admired folk art because it tells a cultural narrative. Their first artistic passion is writing, more specifically poetry. To them, folk art is a form of visual poetry free from the constraints of the fine art world. Folk artists, akin to outsider artists, tend to buck fine art world expectations which gives them a sort of freedom in expressing their cultural identities.

"My acrylic art paintings are a combination of Indigenous beadwork and ledger art motifs done in a folk art style. There are strong spiritual influences and symbolism in all of my pieces. Many of my pieces have a Two Spirit love theme or were created as a grief healing process."
